Pre-K Teacher

Job Description: *

Troy Babes in Toyland is searching for a full time teacher to add to our teaching team. Applicants must have experience in early childhood education, be motivated to continue growing and learning in early education. This position is for applicants who are driven to continually improve in the education and care of children. Babes in Toyland teachers are responsible for the care and education of children in a High-Scope inspired environment. The teachers oversee, promote and encourage co-teachers and parent involvement in the classroom. We create an intimate family atmosphere with our close-knit staff, children and families through family events throughout the year to further experiences between home and school. We're always creating an environment that inspire our students to grow, inquire and feel safe. Our teachers provide opportunities following our philosophy by creating learning experiences that relate to the interests of the children. Candidates must be familier with anecdotal notes using the COR Advantage on-line.
